NEW FREEMAN OF THE BOROUGH OF GASTOWN is radio "hot-liner" and writer Gary Bannerman, one of six honored with the title Sunday in recognition of their support for restoration of the historic area. Bannerman holds his own scroll and one awarded posthumously to Sun columnist Jack Wasserman. Other new freemen are Evelyn (Mrs. H.A.) McKechnie, Larry Killam, Ed Keate and Hank Vander Horst, joining former Mayor Art Phillips, who received the title some years ago. —Millie Strom Photo.
